

Italian Immigrants: Their Lives and Legacy in Albuquerque

Courtesy of David Menicucci

Raised in an Italian family in Albuquerque, professional researcher and author David Menicucci will present the true story of his family's two-hundred-year odyssey from Lucca, Italy, to capture the American dream in Albuquerque.

He unveils fresh history of our City, including almost every Italian family in Albuquerque between 1900 and 1950, their businesses, lifestyle, relationships, and their many contributions to the community. His new book contains over a hundred historical photos, maps, and diagrams, and dozens of personal stories ranging from glory to despair.

Saturday, May 17 • 10:30 a.m. — noon

Main Library Genealogy Center

501 Copper NW 87102 505.768.5131

For more information call 311 TTY users call Relay NM or 711

the PUBLIC LIBRARY
ALBUQUERQUE and BERNALILLO COUNTY

THE ALBUQUERQUE PUBLIC
LIBRARY FOUNDATION

ONE
ALBUQUE
RQUE

